Question 1: Provide a detailed explanation of Sprint's rationale for grandfathering the following FONCARD Usage Rate, (2) Sprint Sense FONCARD Option A, (3) Sprint Sense FONCARD Option B, and (4) Sprint Sense Stand Alone FONCARD.

Response 1: Sprint's rationale for grandfathering FONCARD Usage Rate, Sprint Sense FONCARD Option A, Sprint Sense FONCARD Option B, and Sprint Sense Stand Alone FONCARD is that all of these FONCARD plans can only be obtained to a related interstate tariff that has already been grandfathered.

Question 2: Are the FONCARD plans listed in Item 1 services that can only be obtained as an add-on to a related interstate tariff that has previously been grandfathered? (Explain your response, cite any section(s) in Sprint's intrastate tariff that classify the FONCARD plans as add-on services, and provide documentation of any related interstate tariff that has previously been grandfathered)

Response 2: Yes. Section 1 and Section 4.1.4 of Sprint's intrastate tariff indicate that these services can only be obtained as add-ons to related interstate tariffs. (Copies of these Sprint tariff pages are attached)

In addition, attached are copies of the interstate tariff pages providing documentation that these FONCARD plans have previously been grandfathered by the FCC.

TENNESSEE REGULATORY AUTHORITY DATA REQUEST
DATED SEPTEMBER 17, 1999

Question 3: Does Sprint plan to offer an open enrollment for a limited period of time to permit additional customers to sign on before the selected FONCARD plans are discontinued? (Explain your response.)

Response 3: Since these FONCARD plans are being grandfathered as interstate add-on services, an open enrollment period has not been previously identified by the TRA as a requirement for grandfathering this type service. (Reference Docket 97-07637, AT&T Tariff to Grandfather Uniplan, attached) In addition, an open enrollment period on an intrastate basis would be in conflict with the tariff that has been grandfathered in the interstate tariffs.

UNIPLAN SERVICE AND THE UNIPLAN
FLATRATE PRICING OPTION

) DOCKET NO. 97-07637
)
)
)

ORDER APPROVING AT&T COMMUNICATIONS OF THE SOUTH CENTRAL STATES' TARIFF TO GRANDFATHER UNIPLAN SERVICE AND THE UNIPLAN
FLATRATE PRICING OPTION

This matter came before the Tennessee Regulatory Authority ("Authority") at the regularly scheduled Authority Conference held March 16, 1999, for consideration of Tariff 97-07637. This tariff was originally filed with the Authority on December 19, 1997, for the purpose of grandfathering the UniPlan Service and the UniPlan FlatRate Pricing Option.

UniPlan Service allows customers to make and receive calls from multiple locations and receive one monthly bill for all calls. This filing is an add-on to the interstate AT&T UniPlan Service.

On January 16, 1998, the Consumer Advocate Division (CAD) filed a Petition to Intervene in this matter. The CAD's Petition was considered and granted at the February 3, 1998, Directors' Conference and the tariff was suspended for sixty (60) days. The CAD intervened due to concerns relative to discrimination between existing and new customers. The CAD requested that the company file additional information regarding such services to allow the tariff to be properly evaluated.

By Order dated May 7, 1998, the Hearing Officer re-suspended the tariff until such time as a decision is rendered in this matter.

AT&T filed its brief on April 27, 1998 stating that grandfathering is appropriate for these services because they may only be obtained as an add-on to the related interstate tariff which has already been grandfathered. Based on the information contained in AT&T's brief, the CAD withdrew its opposition to this tariff by its letter dated February 19, 1999. The CAD's decision not to oppose the AT&T UniPlan tariff is based on AT&T's representations that:

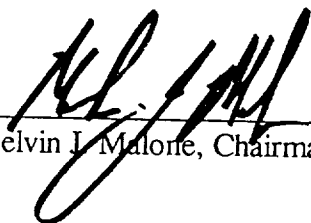

- 1) In 1997, AT&T filed a tariff change with the FCC that grandfathered its UniPlan Service Flat Rate Pricing Option; and
- 2) By the terms of the Tennessee UniPlan tariffs, intrastate service under the tariffs could only be obtained as an add-on to AT&T's interstate tariffs. AT&T's Tennessee offerings of the subject services were, and are, available only to subscribers to the related interstate offerings and were integrated therewith. As of January 1, 1998, as a result of AT&T's FCC tariff changes, the interstate offerings are no longer available to new customers, but remain available to existing subscribers to these services.

On March 3, 1999, AT&T filed the affidavit of Angela Copeland reiterating that the interstate tariff had been grandfathered and that the Tennessee tariff offering could only be obtained as an add-on to the interstate tariff.

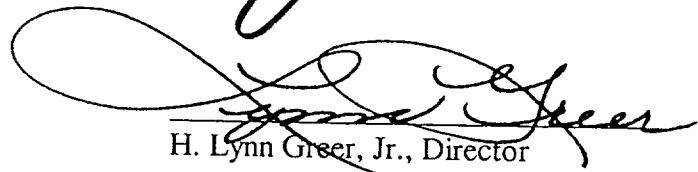

Since UniPlan Service is no longer available on an interstate basis to new customers, effectively it has been grandfathered in the intrastate jurisdiction. Therefore, the Directors unanimously approved AT&T's tariff change to grandfather UniPlan Service.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That this tariff be approved;
2. That any party aggrieved by the Authority's decision in this matter may file a Petition for Reconsideration with the Authority within ten (10) days from and after the date of this Order; and
3. That any party aggrieved by the Authority's decision in this matter has the right to judicial review by filing a Petition For Review with the Tennessee Court of Appeals within sixty (60) days from and after the date of this Order.

SPRINT COMMUNICATIONS L.P.
DOCKET NO. 99-00585
TENNESSEE REGULATORY AUTHORITY DATA REQUEST
DATED SEPTEMBER 17, 1999

Question 4: In Sprint's Response 4.c., dated September 2, 1999, to Question 4 of the TRA's Data Request dated August 25, 1999, Sprint stated that "[I]f at the end of the grandfathering period, customers would be affected by an increase, notification will be made in accordance with TRA Rule 1220-4-2-.55(e)(2)."

TRA Rule 1220-4-2-.55(e)(2) provides:

Prices may be increased thirty (30) days after the proposed price list filing date And after approval by the [Authority], provided, however that prices for the DDD Category of services shall not be increased above any [Authority] prescribed price Cap. Affected customers shall be notified by direct mail or by publication of a Notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected service area thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of any rate increases. A copy of such notice shall be filed with the [Authority] concurrent with the tariff filing.

Is it Sprint's position that notification of rate increases to customers pursuant to TRA Rule 1220-4-2-.55(e)(2) sufficiently provides written notification to existing customers still enrolled in a grandfathered plan within a reasonable time prior to the plan's proposed termination? (Explain your response)

Response 4: Sprint's Response 4.c. dated September 2, 1999, to Question 4 of the TRA's Data Request dated August 25, 1999 was in the context of the question related to the tariff filing by UTSE to obsolete Opportunity 800 service. In view of the documentation provided in Question 1 and Question 2 of this data request, Sprint does not believe that the Tennessee Regulatory Authority has previously identified customer notification as a requirement for the grandfathering of an interstate add-on service. Reference Docket 97-07637, AT&T Tariff to Grandfather Uniplan, and the requirements therein.

SPRINT COMMUNICATIONS L.P.
DOCKET NO. 99-00585
TENNESSEE REGULATORY AUTHORITY DATA REQUEST
DATED SEPTEMBER 17, 1999

Question 6: Are there any circumstances in which it would be appropriate for an IXC to grandfather a service properly classified in the DDD service category per TRA Rule 1220-4-2-.55(d) and contemporaneously therewith introduce at a higher rate a functionally equivalent service provisioned in substantially the same manner as the DDD service that was grandfathered? (Explain your response)

Response 6: First, as indicated in Sprint's Response 1 to TRA Data Request dated August 25, 1999, FONCARD services are not part of a DDD service category. However, consistent with Sprint's comments before the TRA in the Rulemaking Hearing of September 16, 1999 regarding IXC Rules, it is Sprint's position that the competitive nature of the IXC market has reached a level where pricing constraints are no longer appropriate but rather the market is and will continue to determine price and packaging. In a competitive market companies are able to offer varying prices by packaging and re-packaging services to better align with customer telecommunication needs. The market dictates that certain aspects of a service are de-emphasized and new products are introduced. In such a market, it is conceivable that within packaged services an individual rate for a service would be grandfathered and a higher rate for functionally an equivalent service is introduced--all as part of a total package of services provided in response to marketplace demand.

SPRINT COMMUNICATIONS L.P.
DOCKET NO. 99-00585
TENNESSEE REGULATORY AUTHORITY DATA REQUEST
DATED SEPTEMBER 17, 1999

Question 7: Will Sprint agree to amend its proposed tariff to include the grandfathering terms associated with the selected FONCARD plans (e.g. nature and timing of grandfathering period; limited open enrollment period, if any; customer notices, if any; etc.)?

Response 7: Sprint believes the appropriate grandfathering terms associated with the selected FONCARD plans were indicated in Docket 97-07637, AT&T Tariff to Grandfather Uniplan. Sprint will agree to amend its tariff to include appropriate grandfathering terms associated with these FONCARD plans.
